JURY INSTRUCTIONS

WITHDRAWN

0016

CALJIC 1.00

RESPECTIVE DUTIES OF JUDGE AND JURY

Members of the Jury:

You have heard all the evidence and the arguments of the attorneys, and now it is my duty to instruct you on the law that applies to this case. The law requires that I read the instructions to you. You will have these instructions in written form in the jury room to refer to during your deliberations.

You must base your decision on the facts and the law.

You have two duties to perform. First, you must determine what facts have been proved from the evidence received in the trial and not from any other source. A "fact" is something proved by the evidence or by stipulation. A stipulation is an agreement between attorneys regarding the facts. Second, you must apply the law that I state to you, to the facts, as you determine them, and in this way to arrive at your verdict.

You must accept and follow the law as I state it to you, regardless of whether you agree with the law. If anything concerning the law said by the attorneys in their arguments or at any other time during the trial conflicts with my instructions on the law, you must follow my instructions.

You must not be influenced by pity for or prejudice against a defendant. You must not be biased against a defendant because he has been arrested for this offense, charged with a crime, or brought to trial. None of these circumstances is evidence of guilt and you must not infer or assume from any or all of them that a defendant is more likely to be guilty than not guilty. You must not be influenced by mere sentiment, conjecture, sympathy, passion, prejudice, public opinion or public feeling. Both the People and a defendant have a right to expect that you will conscientiously consider and weigh the evidence, apply the law, and reach a just verdict regardless of the consequences.

0018

INSTRUCTIONS TO BE CONSIDERED AS A WHOLE

If any rule, direction or idea is repeated or stated in different ways in these instructions, no emphasis is intended and you must not draw any inference because of its repetition. Do not single out any particular sentence or any individual point or instruction and ignore the others. Consider the instructions as a whole and each in light of all the others.

The order in which the instructions are given has no significance as to their relative importance.

CALJIC 1.02

STATEMENTS OF COUNSEL--EVIDENCE
STRICKEN OUT--INSINUATIONS OF QUESTIONS--STIPULATED FACTS

Statements made by the attorneys during the trial are not evidence. However, if the attorneys have stipulated or agreed to a fact, you must regard that fact as proven as to the party or parties making the stipulation.

If an objection was sustained to a question, do not guess what the answer might have been. Do not speculate as to the reason for the objection.

Do not assume to be true any insinuation suggested by a question asked a witness. A question is not evidence and may be considered only as it helps you to understand the answer.

Do not consider for any purpose any offer of evidence that was rejected, or any evidence that was stricken by the court; treat it as though you had never heard of it.

0020

CALJIC 1.03 (1998 Revision)

JUROR FORBIDDEN TO MAKE ANY
INDEPENDENT INVESTIGATION

You must decide all questions of fact in this case from the evidence received in this trial and not from any other source.

You must not independently investigate the facts or the law or consider or discuss facts as to which there is no evidence. This means, for example, that you must not on your own visit the scene, conduct experiments, or consult reference works or persons for additional information.

You must not discuss this case with any other person except a fellow juror, and then only after the case is submitted to you for your decision and only when all twelve jurors are present in the jury room.

CALJIC 1.05

JUROR'S USE OF NOTES

You have been given notebooks and pencils. Leave them on your seat in the jury room when you leave each day and at each recess. You will be able to take them into the jury room when you deliberate.

Notes are only an aid to memory and should not take precedence over recollection. A juror who does not take notes should rely on his or her recollection of the evidence and not be influenced by the fact that other jurors do take notes. Notes are for the note-taker's own personal use in refreshing his or her recollection of the evidence.

Finally, should any discrepancy exist between a juror's recollection of the evidence and a juror's notes, or between one juror's recollection and that of another, you may request that the reporter read back the relevant testimony which must prevail.

CALJIC 2.00

DIRECT AND CIRCUMSTANTIAL
EVIDENCE--INFERENCES

Evidence consists of testimony of witnesses, writings, material objects, or anything presented to the senses and offered to prove the existence or non-existence of a fact.

Evidence is either direct or circumstantial.

Direct evidence is evidence that directly proves a fact. It is evidence which by itself, if found to be true, establishes that fact.

Circumstantial evidence is evidence that, if found to be true, proves a fact from which an inference of the existence of another fact may be drawn.

An inference is a deduction of fact that may logically and reasonably be drawn from another fact or group of facts established by the evidence.

It is not necessary that facts be proved by direct evidence. They may be proved also by circumstantial evidence or by a combination of direct and circumstantial evidence. Both direct and circumstantial evidence are acceptable as a means of proof. Neither is entitled to any greater weight than the other.

CALJIC 3.31

CONCURRENCE OF ACT AND SPECIFIC INTENT

In the crime charged in Count 1  , there must exist a union or joint operation of act or conduct and a certain specific intent in the mind of the perpetrator. Unless this specific intent exists the crime to which it relates is not committed.

CALJIC 2.02

SUFFICIENCY OF CIRCUMSTANTIAL EVIDENCE
TO PROVE SPECIFIC INTENT OR MENTAL STATE

The specific intent [REDACTED] with which an act is done may be shown by the circumstances surrounding the commission of the act. However, you may not find the defendant guilty of the crime charged in Count * to be true, unless the proved circumstances are not only (1) consistent with the theory that the defendant had the required specific intent [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] but (2) cannot be reconciled with any other rational conclusion. [REDACTED], you may [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] are not only (1) consistent with the theory that the defendant had the required specific intent [REDACTED]

Also, if the evidence as to any specific intent [REDACTED] permits two reasonable interpretations, one of which points to the existence of the specific intent [REDACTED] and the other to its absence, you must adopt that interpretation which points to its absence. If, on the other hand, one interpretation of the evidence as to the specific intent [REDACTED] appears to you to be reasonable and the other interpretation to be unreasonable, you must accept the reasonable interpretation and reject the unreasonable.

CONSCIOUSNESS OF GUILT--FALSEHOOD

If you find that before this trial the defendant made a willfully false or deliberately misleading statement concerning the crimes for which he is now being tried, you may consider that statement as a circumstance tending to prove a consciousness of guilt. However, that conduct is not sufficient by itself to prove guilt, and its weight and significance, if any, are for you to decide.

CALJIC 2.11

PRODUCTION OF ALL AVAILABLE EVIDENCE NOT REQUIRED

Neither side is required to call as witnesses all persons who may have been present at any of the events disclosed by the evidence or who may appear to have some knowledge of these events. Neither side is required to produce all objects or documents mentioned or suggested by the evidence.

WITNESS

[REDACTED] REPORTS—INADMISSIBLE

Evidence has been received pertaining to written reports prepared by one or more of the [REDACTED] witnesses in this case. The actual physical copies of these reports are not admissible evidence and may not be offered by either party to this case. You should draw no inferences from the fact the actual physical copies of these reports were not marked, offered or received into evidence. You are, however, to evaluate any testimony related to these reports in the same manner as you evaluate all other testimony in this matter.

0028

CALJIC 2.13

PRIOR CONSISTENT OR INCONSISTENT
STATEMENTS AS EVIDENCE

Evidence that at some other time a witness made a statement or statements that are inconsistent or consistent with his or her testimony in this trial, may be considered by you not only for the purpose of testing the credibility of the witness, but also as evidence of the truth of the facts as stated by the witness on that former occasion.

If you disbelieve a witness's testimony that he or she no longer remembers a certain event, that testimony is inconsistent with a prior statement or statements by him or her describing that event.

CALJIC 2.20 (2000 Revision)

BELIEVABILITY OF WITNESS

Every person who testifies under oath [or affirmation] is a witness. You are the sole judges of the believability of a witness and the weight to be given the testimony of each witness.

In determining the believability of a witness you may consider anything that has a tendency to prove or disprove the truthfulness of the testimony of the witness, including but not limited to any of the following:

The extent of the opportunity or ability of the witness to see or hear or otherwise become aware of any matter about which the witness has testified;

The ability of the witness to remember or to communicate any matter about which the witness testified;

The character and quality of that testimony;

The demeanor and manner of the witness while testifying;

The existence or nonexistence of a bias, interest, or other motive;

The existence or nonexistence of any fact testified to by the witness;

The attitude of the witness toward this action or toward the giving of testimony[.][;]

[The witness' previous statement made by the witness is consistent with the witness' present testimony.]

[The witness' previous statement made by the witness is inconsistent with the witness' present testimony.]

[The witness' prior conviction of a felony][;]

[The witness' previous statement made by the witness is inconsistent with the witness' present testimony.]

CALJIC 2.21.1 (2001 Revision)

DISCREPANCIES IN TESTIMONY

Discrepancies in a witness's testimony or between a witness's testimony and that of other witnesses, if there were any, do not necessarily mean that [any] [a] witness should be discredited. Failure of recollection is common. Innocent misrecollection is not uncommon. Two persons witnessing an incident or a transaction often will see or hear it differently. You should consider whether a discrepancy relates to an important matter or only to something trivial.

Exact copy of CALJIC No. 2.21.1.

CALJIC 2.21.2

WITNESS WILLFULLY FALSE

A witness, who is willfully false in one material part of his or her testimony, is to be distrusted in others. You may reject the whole testimony of a witness who willfully has testified falsely as to a material point, unless, from all the evidence, you believe the probability of truth favors his or her testimony in other particulars.

Exact copy of CALJIC No. 2.21.2.

CALJIC 2.22

WEIGHING CONFLICTING TESTIMONY

You are not bound to decide an issue of fact in accordance with the testimony of a number of witnesses, which does not convince you, as against the testimony of a lesser number or other evidence, which appeals to your mind with more convincing force. You may not disregard the testimony of the greater number of witnesses merely from caprice, whim or prejudice, or from a desire to favor one side against the other. You must not decide an issue by the simple process of counting the number of witnesses who have testified on the opposing sides. The final test is not in the relative number of witnesses, but in the convincing force of the evidence.

Exact copy of CALJIC No. 2.22, except adaptations.

CALJIC 2.23. BELIEVABILITY OF WITNESS--CONVICTION OF A FELONY

[REDACTED]

The fact that a witness has been convicted of a felony, if this is a fact, may be considered by you only for the purpose of determining the believability of that witness. The fact of a conviction does not necessarily destroy or impair a witness's believability. It is one of the circumstances that you may consider in weighing the testimony of that witness.

0034

CALJIC 2.27

SUFFICIENCY OF TESTIMONY
OF ONE WITNESS

You should give the testimony of a single witness whatever weight you think it deserves.

Testimony by one witness which you believe concerning any fact is sufficient for the proof of that fact. You should carefully review all the evidence upon which the proof of that fact depends.

CALJIC 2.52

FLIGHT AFTER CRIME

The flight of a person immediately after the commission of a crime, or after he is accused of a crime, is not sufficient in itself to establish his guilt, but is a fact which, if proved, may be considered by you in the light of all other proved facts in deciding whether a defendant is guilty or not guilty. The weight to which this circumstance is entitled is a matter for you to decide.

0036

CALJIC 2.71

ADMISSION--DEFINED

An admission is a statement made by the defendant which does not by itself acknowledge his guilt of the crimes for which the defendant is on trial, but which statement tends to prove his guilt when considered with the rest of the evidence.

You are the exclusive judges as to whether the defendant made an admission, and if so, whether that statement is true in whole or in part.

Evidence of an oral admission of the defendant not made in court should be viewed with caution.

CALJIC 2.72.

CORPUS DELICTI MUST BE PROVED
INDEPENDENT OF ADMISSION

No person may be convicted of a criminal offense unless there is some proof of each element of the crime independent of any admission made by him outside of this trial.

The identity of the person who is alleged to have committed a crime is not an element of the crime nor is the degree of the crime. The identity may be established by an admission.

CALJIC 2.90

PRESUMPTION OF INNOCENCE--
REASONABLE DOUBT--BURDEN OF PROOF

A defendant in a criminal action is presumed to be innocent until the contrary is proved, and in case of a reasonable doubt whether his guilt is satisfactorily shown, he is entitled to a verdict of not guilty. This presumption places upon the People the burden of proving him guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.

Reasonable doubt is defined as follows: It is not a mere possible doubt; because everything relating to human affairs is open to some possible or imaginary doubt. It is that state of the case which, after the entire comparison and consideration of all the evidence, leaves the minds of the jurors in that condition that they cannot say they feel an abiding conviction of the truth of the charge.

CALJIC 3.30

CONCURRENCE OF ACT AND
GENERAL CRIMINAL INTENT

23-4

In the crimes charged in Counts  namely, , there must exist a union or joint operation of act or conduct and general criminal intent. General intent does not require an intent to violate the law. When a person intentionally does that which the law declares to be a crime, he is acting with general criminal intent, even though he may not know that his act or conduct is unlawful.

CALJIC 4.71

PROOF NEED NOT SHOW
EXACT TIME OF CRIME

When, as in this case, it is alleged that the crime charged was committed "on or about" a certain date, if you find that the crime was committed, it is not necessary that the proof show that it was committed on that precise date; it is sufficient if the proof shows that the crime was committed on or about that date.

BURGLARY--DEFINED

(Pen. Code, § 459)

Defendant is accused in Count 1 of having committed the crime of burglary, a violation of section 459 of the Penal Code.

Every person who enters any building with the specific intent to commit a felony is guilty of the crime of burglary in violation of Penal Code section 459.

A building is a structure.

It does not matter whether the intent with which the entry was made was thereafter carried out.

In order to prove this crime, each of the following elements must be proved:

1. A person entered a building; and
2. At the time of the entry, that person had the specific intent to commit the crime of Assault with a deadly weapon.

CALJIC 14.51

FIRST AND SECOND DEGREE BURGLARY--DEFINED
(Pen. Code, § 460)

If you should find the defendant guilty of burglary, you must determine the degree thereof and state that degree in your verdict.

There are two degrees of burglary. Every burglary of an inhabited dwelling house is burglary of the first degree.

All other kinds of burglary are of the second degree.

ASSAULT WITH A DEADLY WEAPON
(Pen. Code, § 245, subds. (a)(2))

Defendant is accused in Count 2 of having violated section 245, subdivision (a)(2) of the Penal Code, a crime.

Every person who commits an assault upon the person of another with a firearm is guilty of a violation of section 245, subdivision (a)(2) of the Penal Code, a crime.

A "deadly weapon" is any object, instrument, or weapon which is used in such a manner as to be capable of producing, and likely to produce, death or great bodily injury.

A firearm includes a shotgun.

In order to prove this crime, each of the following elements must be proved:

1. A person was assaulted; and
2. The assault was committed with a firearm.

Exact copy of CALJIC No. 9.02, except adaptations.

0045

CALJIC 9.00

ASSAULT--DEFINED

In order to prove an assault, each of the following elements must be proved:

1. A person willfully committed an act which by its nature would probably and directly result in the application of physical force on another person;
2. The person committing the act was aware of facts that would lead a reasonable person to realize that as a direct, natural and probable result of this act that physical force would be applied to another person; and
3. At the time the act was committed, the person committing the act had the present ability to apply physical force to the person of another.

The word "willfully" means that the person committing the act did so intentionally. However, an assault does not require an intent to cause injury to another person, or an actual awareness of the risk that injury might occur to another person.

To constitute an assault, it is not necessary that any actual injury be inflicted. However, if an injury is inflicted it may be considered in connection with other evidence in determining whether an assault was committed.

CALJIC 9.00.1 (2004 Revision)

ASSAULT--CONDITIONAL THREAT

An assault includes a conditional threat to apply physical force upon another, providing that:

1. The threat commands the immediate performance of some act which the threatening party has no legal right to demand;
2. The threat is made with the intention of compelling performance of that act by the application of physical force;
3. The person making the threat has placed himself physically in a position to inflict such physical force; and
4. That person has proceeded as far as it is necessary to go in order to carry out his intention.

CALJIC 9.01

ASSAULT--PRESENT ABILITY TO COMMIT INJURY NECESSARY

A necessary element of an assault is that the person committing the assault have the present ability to apply physical force to the person of another. This means that at the time of the act which by its nature would probably and directly result in the application of physical force upon the person of another, the perpetrator of the act must have the physical means to accomplish that result. If there is this ability, "present ability" exists even if there is no injury.

CALJIC 12.44

FIREARM--POSSESSION BY PERSON CONVICTED
OF A FELONY--STATUS STIPULATED

(Pen. Code, §§12021, subd. (a)(1)

Defendant is accused in Count 3 of having violated section 12021, subd. (a)(1) of the Penal Code, a crime.

Every person who, having previously been convicted of a felony, owns, purchases, receives, or has in his possession or under his custody or control any pistol, revolver, or other firearm is guilty of a violation of section 12021, subdivision (a)(1)of the Penal Code, a crime.

In this case, the previous felony conviction has already been established by stipulation so that no further proof of that fact is required. You must accept as true, the existence of this previous felony conviction.

In order to prove this crime, each of the following elements must be proved:

1. The defendant had in his possession a shotgun; and
2. The defendant had knowledge of the presence of the shotgun.

CALJIC 12.40

ILLEGAL POSSESSION OF CERTAIN WEAPONS OR EXPLOSIVES

(Pen. Code, § 12020, subd. (a)(1))

Defendant is accused in Count 4 of having violated section 12020, subdivision (a) (1) of the Penal Code, a crime.

Every person who possesses a short-barreled shotgun is guilty of a violation of Penal Code section 12020, subdivision (a)(1), a crime.

A short-barreled shotgun means any of the following: (A) A firearm which is designed or redesigned to fire a fixed shotgun shell and having a barrel or barrels of less than 18 inches in length OR (B) A firearm which has an overall length of less than 26 inches and which is designed or redesigned to fire a fixed shotgun shell.

In order to prove this crime, each of the following element must be proved:

1. A person possessed a short-barreled shotgun.

CALJIC 17.19

PERSONAL USE OF FIREARM
(Pen. Code, §§ 12022.5, subd. (a))

It is alleged in Counts 1 and 2 that the defendant personally used a firearm during the commission of the crime charged.

If you find the defendant guilty of one or more of the crimes charged, you must determine whether the defendant personally used a firearm in the commission of those felonies.

The word "firearm" includes a shotgun. The "firearm" need not be operable.

The term "personally used a firearm," as used in this instruction, means that the defendant must have intentionally displayed a firearm in a menacing manner, intentionally fired it, or intentionally struck or hit a human being with it.

The People have the burden of proving the truth of this allegation. If you have a reasonable doubt that it is true, you must find it to be not true.

Include a special finding on that question in your verdict, using a form that will be supplied for that purpose.

Exact copy of CALJIC No. 17.19, except adaptations.

CALJIC 17.12

JURY MAY RETURN PARTIAL VERDICT

If you are not satisfied beyond a reasonable doubt that a defendant is guilty of the crime of which he is accused in Court 2, and you unanimously so find, you may convict him of a lesser crime provided you are satisfied beyond a reasonable doubt that he is guilty of that time.

You will be provided with guilty and not guilty verdict forms for the crime charged in Count 2, and lesser crimes thereto. The crime of simple assault is a lesser crime to that of assault with firearm.

Thus, you are to determine whether the defendant is guilty or not guilty of the crime charged in Count 2, or of any lesser crimes. In doing so, you have discretion to choose the order in which you evaluate each crime and consider the evidence pertaining to it. You may find it to be productive to consider and reach tentative conclusion on all charges and lesser crimes before reaching any final verdicts.

Disregard the instruction previously given which requires that you return but one verdict form as to Count 2.

Before you return any final or formal verdict, you must be guided by the following:

1. If you unanimously find the defendant guilty of the crime of which he is accused in Count 2, your foreperson should sign and date the corresponding verdict form. All other verdict forms as to Count 2 must be left unsigned.

2. If you are unable to reach a unanimous verdict as to the crime of which the defendant is accused in Count 2, do not sign any verdict forms as to Count 2 and report your disagreement to the court.

3. The court cannot accept a guilty verdict on a lesser crime, unless the jury also unanimously finds and returns a signed verdict form of not guilty as to the charged greater crime.

4. If you unanimously agree and find a defendant not guilty of the crime with which he is charged in Count 2, your foreperson should sign and date the not guilty verdict form as to the charged greater crime, and report your disagreement as to the lesser crimes to the court.

CALJIC 17.01. VERDICT MAY BE BASED ON ONE OF A NUMBER OF UNLAWFUL ACTS

[Redacted] date: 11/2003

The defendant is accused of having committed the crime of assault with a firearm in Count 2. The prosecution has introduced evidence for the purpose of showing that there is more than one act upon which a conviction on Count 2 may be based. Defendant may be found guilty if the proof shows beyond a reasonable doubt that he committed any one or more of the acts. However, in order to return a verdict of guilty to Count 2, all jurors must agree that he committed the same act. It is not necessary that the particular act agreed upon be stated in your verdict.

JURY NOT TO TAKE CUE FROM THE JUDGE

I have not intended by anything I have said or done, or by any questions that I may have asked, or by any ruling I may have made, to intimate or suggest what you should find to be the facts, or that I believe or disbelieve any witness.

If anything I have done or said has seemed to so indicate, you will disregard it and form your own conclusion.

ALL INSTRUCTIONS NOT NECESSARILY APPLICABLE

The purpose of the court's instructions is to provide you with the applicable law so that you may arrive at a just and lawful verdict. Whether some instructions apply will depend upon what you find to be the facts. Disregard any instruction which applies to facts determined by you not to exist. Do not conclude that because an instruction has been given I am expressing an opinion as to the facts.

INDIVIDUAL OPINION REQUIRED--
DUTY TO DELIBERATE

The People and the defendant are entitled to the individual opinion of each juror.

Each of you must consider the evidence for the purpose of reaching a verdict if you can do so. Each of you must decide the case for yourself, but should do so only after discussing the evidence and instructions with the other jurors.

Do not hesitate to change an opinion if you are convinced it is wrong. However, do not decide any question in a particular way because a majority of the jurors, or any of them, favor that decision.

Do not decide any issue in this case by the flip of a coin, or by any other chance determination.

HOW JURORS SHOULD APPROACH THEIR TASK

The attitude and conduct of jurors at all times are very important. It is rarely helpful for a juror at the beginning of deliberations to express an emphatic opinion on the case or to announce a determination to stand for a certain verdict. When one does that at the outset, a sense of pride may be aroused, and one may hesitate to change a position even if shown it is wrong. Remember that you are not partisans or advocates in this matter. You are impartial judges of the facts.

JURY MUST NOT CONSIDER PENALTY--

In your deliberations do not discuss or consider the subject of penalty or punishment.

That subject must not in any way affect your verdict.

JURY DELIBERATIONS

During deliberations, any question or request you may have should be addressed to the Court [on a form that will be provided]. If there is any disagreement as to the actual testimony, you have the right, if you choose, to request a readback by the reporter. You may request a partial or total readback, but any readback should be a fair presentation of that evidence. If a readback of testimony is requested, the reporter will delete objections, rulings, and sidebar conferences so that you will hear only the evidence that was actually presented. Please understand that counsel must first be contacted, and it may take time to provide a [response] [, or] [readback]. Continue deliberating until you are called back into the courtroom.

You must disregard any deleted part of an instruction and not speculate as to what it was or as to the reason for its deletion. You are not to be concerned with the reasons for any modification.

Every part of the text of an instruction, whether typed, printed or handwritten, is of equal importance. You are to be governed only by the instruction in its final wording.

CONCLUDING INSTRUCTION

You shall now retire and select one of your number to act as foreperson. He or she will preside over your deliberations. In order to reach verdicts, all twelve jurors must agree to the decision. As soon as you have agreed upon a verdict, so that when polled each may state truthfully that the verdicts express his or her vote, have them dated and signed by your foreperson and then return with it them to this courtroom. Return any unsigned verdict forms.

When you reach a verdict as to any particular count, place all verdict forms for that count in a sealed envelope which will be held by the Clerk until verdicts on both all counts have been reached. At that time, the sealed verdicts will be returned to the foreperson, and the jury will return with them to this courtroom. Return any unsigned verdict forms.

You will be permitted to separate at the noon and evening recesses. During your absence the courtroom will be locked. You are to return following the recesses at 1:30 p.m. and at 9:00 a.m. on the next succeeding court date. During periods of recess, you must not discuss with anyone any subject connected with this trial, and you must not deliberate further upon the case until all 12 of you are together and reassembled in the jury room. THE OFFENSE:SOURCES OF INFORMATION for this section*DISTRICT ATTORNEY FILE

The Probation Officer is aware the Court was present during the trial proceedings and is undoubtedly more familiar with the facts of the offense. The following account is a summation of the facts as made available to the Probation Officer.

Jose Castro, Rebecca Knox and Christopher Knox were all staying in an apartment together at 545 North Mollison, #4, located on the second floor. The defendant, James Cunningham, was residing in apartment #1, located on the first floor. On September 12, 2004 at approximately 4:30 p.m., Jose Castro returned a vacuum to the defendant, that his roommate Rebecca Knox had borrowed. Castro walked down to the defendant's apartment and placed the vacuum on the patio outside the door. Castro then returned to his own apartment upstairs.

A few minutes later, the defendant appeared at the apartment occupied by Castro and the Knox's. He walked inside and accused Castro of stealing his cell phone. Castro denied doing so. The defendant then stated he was going to return to his own apartment to look for the cell phone. He stated if he did not find it, he was going to come back and kill everyone in the apartment.

Approximately forty-five minutes later, the defendant returned to apartment #4 with a shotgun in his hand. Castro and Rebecca Knox were sitting in the front room and Christopher Knox was in the bedroom. After the defendant entered the apartment, he began yelling about his cell phone, pointing the shotgun at Castro. Castro picked up the cordless phone to call the police. The defendant approached Castro, put the shotgun to his neck and pushed Castro up against the wall, using the barrel of the gun as leverage. He then reached down and took the phone out of Castro's hand and told him he was going to kill him. Christopher Knox, who had been in the bedroom, heard the commotion and came out. He was armed with a baseball bat and told the defendant to leave. Before leaving, Cunningham again threatened to kill everyone in the apartment.

The defendant left the apartment, walked down the stairs and out to where his truck was parked. He then left the complex in his car. Police located him driving several blocks away from the complex and pursued the truck. During the chase, the defendant was observed throwing an object out of the truck. The object was later retrieved and determined to be a loaded sawed off- shotgun.

A standard letter was mailed out to the victim's last known residence, informing him of his rights as a victim, requesting restitution information and advising him of today's hearing. Telephone calls were also made to his last known residence and a hotel, where he was believed to have been staying. He has not responded to the written correspondence and all attempts to speak with Mr. Castro have proven unsuccessful. Should any additional information come to light, it will be forwarded to the Court for today's sentencing hearing. Based on all available police reports and follow-ups, it does not appear he was physically injured as a result of the assault.

DEFENDANT'S STATEMENT:

SOURCES OF INFORMATION for this section

VIDEO INTERVIEW WITH THE DEFENDANT ON 1-21-05

The defendant declined to make a written statement regarding his involvement in this offense. During a personal interview, he stated the incident came about due to on-going problems with these particular neighbors. When he first met Rebecca and Christopher Knox, they were good people. They started using drugs and soon there was a lot of traffic in and out of their apartment. Castro didn't really live there, he just stayed there to use drugs. When his money ran out, he would leave. He became aware that they were committing crimes to support their habit. At one point, he loaned Rebecca Knox money and she repaid him with a fraudulent check. He got mad and decided not to deal with them anymore. Soon his property and his kid's toys started disappearing from the outside patio. He warned them that he would turn them in to the authorities if it didn't stop. Shortly thereafter, three unknown persons near the apartment complex assaulted him. They called him a snitch and then punched and kicked him. He had to get sixteen stitches in his head. He is certain they were friends of the victim.

On the day of the incident, he left his apartment and did not return until evening time. He noticed the window screen was pried back and his door was unlocked. His checkbook, cell phone and some of the kid's clothing were missing. When he checked with neighbors, they told him they had seen Rebecca Knox knocking on his door and then saw Castro carrying something from his apartment. "Their story about returning a vacuum was a lie. I gave Rebecca a vacuum cleaner a long time ago, long before all the problems started."

CUNNINGHAM, JAMES HENRY
SCE243538

After speaking with the neighbors, he went up to their apartment and asked Castro where his phone was. Castro denied taking it and he (defendant) left. Four or five months earlier he had borrowed a gun from a friend due to gang activity in the neighborhood. He knew as a felon he was not allowed to have a gun but he worried about his children's safety. He kept it locked up in a chest in his bedroom and kept his bedroom door locked.

He took the gun and returned to their apartment to get his cell phone. The door was slightly open but he still knocked. He only brought the gun for protection and he kept it down by his side the entire time. "I know I was wrong for taking the gun up there and I regret that. I didn't verbally threaten anyone and did not hold the gun to Castro's neck. Castro never came out of the kitchen and I never walked more than two feet inside the doorway. All of a sudden, Christopher Knox came out of the bedroom swinging a baseball bat. They were verbally threatening to kick my ass and called me a snitch. I left and drove to my mother's house. I threw the gun out of the window because I was afraid the police might shoot me if they thought I was armed."

"I was wrong for brandishing the gun. I learned my lesson. I am asking for probation consideration. I want to get out and raise my family. I apologize to the Court and everyone involved. It was out of character for me to do that. I feel I have been punished enough. I lost my apartment, my job, my cars and I can't see my kids. I will do probation successfully again."

The defendant was advised that he is absolutely ineligible for probation based on the strike prior finding.

He had an open beer in between his legs and he was holding a glass-smoking pipe in his hand. The middle portion of the pipe had white residue in it and the end of the pipe was charred.

After several attempts, officers were able to wake up the subject, identified as James Cunningham. He appeared dazed and confused and officers noted the odor of alcohol on his breath and person. Following his arrest, a syringe was found on the floorboard of the driver's seat. Cunningham was very uncooperative following his arrest and verbally threatened officers. His BAC was .17.

SENTENCING DATA: As to all Counts, unless specifically designated otherwise:Possible Circumstances in Mitigation:

Rule 4.423(a)(2): The victim was a provoker of the incident. The defendant claims that friends of the victim had previously assaulted him for reporting illegal activity in the apartment complex. His injuries required sixteen stitches. He felt he needed to defend himself when he went to their apartment to demand his cell phone back and thus armed himself.

Rule 4.408(a): No one was physically injured as a result of the assault.

Rule 4.408(a): The defendant's last felony conviction occurred twelve years ago in 1993.

Possible Circumstances in Aggravation:

Rule 4.421(a)(8): The manner in which the crime was carried out indicates planning. He went to the victim's residence and accused him of stealing his cell phone. When the victim denied having it, the defendant told him he would be back and kill him if he could not find it in his own apartment. He then returned with the loaded shotgun.

Rule 4.421(b)(1): The defendant has engaged in violent conduct that indicates a serious danger to society.

Rule 4.421(b)(2): The defendant's prior convictions as an adult are increasing in seriousness.

Rule 4.421(b)(4): The defendant was on Court probation for misdemeanor battery in M775621 when the crime was committed.

Prison Term Analysis:

The sentencing choices available to the Court for Count 2, Assault with a Firearm are 2, 3 and 4 years. The PC 667(b)-(i) Strike Prior (CR64287) doubles the base terms to 4, 6 and 8 years. Although the mitigants and aggravants are fairly balanced, it appears the defendant is receiving sufficient punishment having been found to have suffered a prior serious felony conviction. Therefore, the recommendation will be for the lower term of 4 years. Count 2 has an additional enhancement, PC 12022.5(a) attached to it, that carries an additional 3, 4 and 10-year penalty, to be served consecutive to any sentence imposed. In considering the mitigating and aggravating circumstances, the undersigned found no reason to deviate from the presumptive middle term. Therefore, an additional four years will be recommended on the above count. Count 2 is selected as the principal term.

CUNNINGHAM, JAMES HENRY

11

02/08/2005

0079

The sentencing choices available to the Court for Count 3, PC 12021(a)(1) and Count 4, PC 12020(a)(1) are 16 months, 2 years and 3 years. The PC 667.5(b)-(i), Strike Prior, doubles the base term to 32 months, 4 years and 6 years. Although the mitigants and aggravants are fairly balanced, it appears the defendant is receiving sufficient punishment having been found to have suffered a prior serious felony conviction. Therefore, the recommendation will be for the lower term of 32 months.

In addition, PC 667(a)(1) First Serious Felony Prior (CR64287) carries an additional mandatory consecutive 5- year term. Although this prior conviction is the same as that used for the Strike Prior, the enhancement may be added per People v. Dotson(1997)16 CA4th 547.

654 Issues:

Pursuant to Judicial Council Rule 424, prior to determining whether to impose either concurrent or consecutive sentences on all counts in which the defendant was convicted, the Court shall determine whether the proscription in PC654 against multiple punishments for the same act or omission requires a stay of imposition of sentence on some counts. Count 3 and 4 are viewed as arising from the same set of operative facts. The defendant is a convicted felon and was in possession of a dangerous weapon, specifically a shotgun. Therefore, punishment for Count 4 should be barred per PC 654.

Concurrent vs. Consecutive Sentences:

The undersigned has reviewed Judicial Council Rule 4.425, Criteria affecting Concurrent or Consecutive Sentences. It is the undersigned opinion that Rule 4.425(a)(1) would justify consecutive sentences. The defendant admittedly came into possession of the firearm four or five months prior to the assault. He borrowed the gun from a friend due to gang activity in his neighborhood. He did not obtain the gun with the specific intent of confronting or assaulting the victim. He knew, as a felon, it was not lawful to possess a gun. The crimes and their objectives were predominantly independent of each other.

EVALUATION:

Probation Eligibility:

Rule 4.413(a): Absolutely ineligible for probation pursuant to PC 667(b)-(i)/1170.12/668, Strike Prior,

The defendant is also presumptively ineligible for a grant of probation pursuant to PC 1203(e)(2) deadly weapon use and PC 1203(e)(4), two or more prior felony convictions. Therefore, circumstances supporting a grant or denial of probation will not be addressed.

Discussion:

Before the Court for sentencing today is forty six year old James Cunningham. He was found guilty by jury of Count 2, PC 245(a)(2), Count 3, PC 12021(a)(1) and Count 4, PC 12020(a)(1). Allegations PC 667(a)(1) and PC 667.5(b)-(i) were found true by the Court.

The defendant threatened the victim with a loaded sawed off shotgun, after he suspected him of stealing his cell phone. The victim has not responded to a letter sent to his last known address.

CUNNINGHAM, JAMES HENRY
SCE243538

12

02/08/2005

0080

Although it appears no one was physically injured, holding a loaded gun to someone's head and threatening to kill them is certain to have emotional repercussions.

The defendant claims he armed himself that day, as friends of the victim had previously assaulted him. He got the gun months earlier due to gang activity in the neighborhood and knew it was unlawful to possess it.

The defendant has violence in his past but it is fairly dated. His last felony conviction occurred in 1993 and he successfully completed formal probation in that case. On the other hand, the crime appears to have been premeditated and he was on probation when committing the crime.

Mr. Cunningham became his own worst enemy when he chose to take matters into his own hands and confront the victim with a loaded shotgun. He must now live with the consequences of his criminal actions.

Based on the jury and Court findings, the defendant is absolutely ineligible for probation pursuant to PC 667(b)-(i) and therefore a commitment to state prison is mandatory. Consecutive sentences appear warranted with respect to Counts 2 and 3 and staying the punishment on Count 4 is being recommended pursuant to PC 654.

MATTERS IN DISPUTE & NOTICE OF INTENTION TO OFFER EVIDENCE3
There are no matters in dispute and the defendant does not intend to present additional

III.7
PROBATION SHOULD BE GRANTED IN THIS CASE8
The critical question posed today is: In what manner should the court exercise its discretion
9 in resolving the question of whether to impose a state prison commitment or probation. The District
10 Attorney's Office, through its representative, will recommend that the court resolve the question by 11 imposing a state prison sentence. It is our position that such a resolution would be overly harsh. We 12 are recommending that the court exercise its discretion by imposing probation.13 JAMES CUNNINGHAM should be given the benefit of several mitigating factors during the 14 court's determination of which penalty to impose. The prison commitment should be stayed and
15 JAMES CUNNINGHAM should be given a chance to make good on probation for the following
16 reason:17
IV.18
CRITERIA AFFECTING PROBATION [Rule 4.414]19 Rule 4.414 (a): Facts relating to the crime, including:20 Rule 4.414 (a) (1): The nature, seriousness and circumstances of the crime as compared to 21 other instances of the same crime.22 Rule 4.414 (a) (2): While the defendant was armed with a weapon, it was not fired in the 23 commission of the crime.24 Rule 4.414 (a) (3): The victim in this case was not necessarily within those classes of persons
25 deemed "vulnerable".26 Rule 4.414 (a) (4): The defendant did not inflict bodily injury.27 Rule 4.414 (a) (5): There was no monetary loss to the victim.

Rule 4.414 (a) (7): The crime was committed because of unusual circumstance, including great provocation, indicating that it is unlikely to recur.

Rule 4.414 (a) (8): The manner in which the crime was carried out shows conclusively that the defendant is an unsophisticated person.

Rule 4.414 (a) (9): The defendant did not take advantage of a position of trust or confidence to commit the crime.

Rule 4.414 (b): Facts relating to the defendant, including:

Rule 4.414 (b) (1): The defendant's criminal record does not reveal a pattern of regular or increasingly serious criminal conduct, especially considering that the defendant's last felony conviction was over ten years ago.

Rule 4.414 (b)(2): Defendant's prior performance on probation has been good.

Rule 4.414 (b) (3): Defendant is willing and able to comply with the conditions of probation.

13 Rule 4.414 (b) (4): The defendant is able to comply with reasonable terms of probation
14 because he is 48 years old, has maintained steady employment , has a strong family background,
15 including the care of his minor children, and has shown to ability to comply with the conditions of 16 formal probation in past cases.

Rule 4.414 (b) (5): The effect of imprisonment on the defendant and particularly his family will be extremely negative and counter-productive.

Rule 4.414 (b) (8): The defendant is remorseful.

Rule 4.414 (b) (9): The defendant is not a danger to others if not imprisoned

. V.

CRITERIA AFFECTING PROBATION IN UNUSUAL CASES [Rule 4.413 (c) (1)]

Rule 4.413 (c) (1):

(ii) The current offense is less serious than a prior felony conviction that is the cause of the

1 limitation on probation, and the defendant has been free from incarceration and serious violation of 2 the law for a substantial time before the current offense.

3 Rule 4.413 (c) (2):

4 (i) Defendant participated in the crime under circumstances of great provocation,
5 coercion, or duress not amounting to a defense, and the defendant has no recent record of 6 committing crimes of violence.

7 VI.

8 CIRCUMSTANCES IN MITIGATION [Rule 4.423)]

9 Facts relating to the Crime:

10 Rule 4.423 (a) (3): The victim was an initiator of the incident by stealing from the defendant
11 and taunting him over a period of months, thereby creating the hostile environment.

12 The victim was the provoker of the incident.

13 Rule 4.423 (a) (4): The crime was committed because of an unusual circumstance, namely,
14 great provocation which is unlikely to recur.

15 Rule 4.423 (a) (5): The defendant's conduct was partially excusable because his intent was to 16 get his stolen property back, which included clothing for his daughter and checks to his bank
17 account.

18 Rule 4.423 (a) (7): The defendant exercised caution to avoid harm to persons or damage to 19 property.

20 Facts Relating to the Defendant:

21 Rule 4.423 (b) (1): The defendant has a relatively insignificant criminal record for the past
22 twelve years.

23 Rule 4.423 (b) (6): Up until this offense, the defendant's performance on probation was 24 satisfactory.

MOTION TO STRIKE ADDITIONAL TERM OF IMPRISONMENT PURSUANT TO
PENAL CODE SECTION 1170(a) AND 1170.1(h) [Rule 4.433 (c) (2)]4
The defendant now moves this Court to strike the prior strike allegation, based on the following reasons:6
The prior strike occurred in 1983, thereby making it remote in time (over 20 years old).7
The punishment under the three strikes law is disproportionate to the severity of the current offense and to the defendant's criminal history.9
The defendant has demonstrated an ability to conduct himself as a law abiding citizen 10 for long periods of time.11
The defendant is not deemed to be a danger to persons.12
The offense was committed because of an unusual circumstance, that being the 13 defendant's desire to take matters into his own hands and try to retrieve property that was 14
stolen from him.15

CONCLUSION

1 Before the Court is 48 years old James Cunningham. Mr. Cunningham was living a law abiding life,
2 going to work and supporting his children. Mr. Cunningham's biggest mistake was to try and befriend
3 his upstairs neighbors who in turn, stole from him and constantly threatened him with bodily harm.
4 Mr. Cunningham made a huge mistake by going to the apartment with his shotgun, the question before
5 this court is how to punish Mr. Cunningham in light of the fact that no one was hurt.

6 It is our request that this Court take a bold stance and grant Mr. Cunningham probation, with a
7 stayed prison term. The Court should also strike the prior strike allegation for the reasons previously
8 cited. In the alternative, the Court should order a 1203.4 evaluation from the Department of 9 Corrections to further aid in what should be the appropriate sentence.

To Whom It May Concern:

Regarding: James Cunningham, Jr.

As an older brother of James, I've been around him his whole life and I've witness the changes in his life.

In the last ten years I've seen changes that indicate to me that he is really growing and maturing in a positive way. I see him working steady, I see him taking responsibility for his children as a single father and providing a home for them. I think it would be devastating for them to lose him at this time in their lives.

Our family has suffered several tragedies in the last few years and it has possibly made him overly cautious in some ways.

I ask for your leniency in deciding this matter.

To Whom It May Concern:

Regarding: James Cunningham, Jr.

I've known James for approximately 28 years. I find him to be a very reliable person and I admire him for his effort to raise his children alone. As a single parent myself I applaud his efforts. He is a steady worker and seem to be doing a good job in taking care of his family. I think it will be very hard on his children if their father is remove from their lives for a longer period of time. Thank you for considering my feelings in this matter.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

I welcome this opportunity to share my feelings about James Cunningham and the kind, considerate, warm and tender hearted person that I personally know him to be. I have known James for the past 20+ years as the brother of my fiancée, Uncle to my two daughters, and a personable supportive friend to me and my family. He is a good father to his two daughters, a loving son to his Mother and a good family member that is close to all of his brothers, nieces and nephews and friends. I am sharing what I know from observation and experience and have seen him lend nothing but positive support, always.

I am terribly disturbed by the accusation(s) that have been made against him and feel that if any of it is true, then he had to be provoked to the point of defending himself. However, I don't believe that he is capable of committing any harm to anyone unless he was provoked.

I pray that justice will be done by him in that all of the evidence will be weighed heavily, if there be any against him; and also asking you to realize that there definitely is two sides to every story by ensuring that the scale is equally balanced before settling in judgment just against him.

Humbly Submitted,
